 - (i) equipment utilized for snow removal, or to any motor vehicle, lawn mower, chain saw or any other gas-powered or electrical

NUISANCE BYLAW

tool or machine used or operated by or on behalf of the City; or

- (ii) contractors pushing or removing snow from both residential and commercial premises within twenty-four (24) hours after a snowfall in excess of four (4) centimeters; or
- (iii) a snow clearing device powered by an engine of any kind, in a residential area used to remove snow that is blocking a driveway so as to prevent egress from that premise within twenty-four (24) hours of a snowfall in excess of four (4) centimeters.

- 3.8 Any person who operates or causes or permits to be operated any sound system within the City that is causing a disturbance or interfering with any person is guilty of an offence.
- 3.9 For the purpose of a prosecution pursuant to Sections 3.2, 3.3, 3.4, 3.5, 3.6 and 3.7, evidence that one neighbour is unreasonably disturbed by a noise is prima facie evidence that the neighbourhood is unreasonably disturbed by the noise.

Unwieldy Loads

- 3.10 Any person who draws or causes to be drawn any unwieldy or heavy thing upon any of the streets of the City without having adequate and ready means of safety guiding the same, or who drives or causes to be driven anything in the streets which may be reasonably capable of thereby injuring the said streets, is guilty of an offence.

Moving Buildings

- 3.11 The moving of buildings within the City shall be done only under the written authority of the Planning Department for the City. The moving permit shall include the course to be followed and, where applicable, the location the building will occupy overnight.
- (a) Any person who moves or causes to be moved any building on any of the streets or squares of the City without an approved permit, is guilty of an offence.
 - (b) Any person, in so moving or causing to be moved any such building or apparatus used in moving, who fails to sufficiently light such building or apparatus in a manner that may cause danger to passengers and traffic is guilty of an offence.

Litter

NUISANCE BYLAW

- 3.12 (a) Except where otherwise provided in Section 3.11(b) or (c), any person who throws, puts, places, or lets fall any litter, trash (paper or otherwise), dirt, filth, or other nuisance matter on any street, square, lane, sidewalk, wharf or bridge of the City, or from any street, square, lane, sidewalk, wharf or bridge upon any adjoining property is guilty of an offence.
- (b) Except where other collection methods have been made with Island Waste Management Corporation (IWMC), waste, compost and recyclable materials shall be in receptacles/containers or packaged, as approved by IWMC, and placed for collection by IWMC in front of the premises as close as practicable to curb, edge of sidewalk or street between the hours of 5:00 PM the day prior to collection and 7:00 PM the day of collection.
- (c) The provisions of Section 3.11(b) do not apply during the periods of the annual spring and fall clean-up as advertised by IWMC.

Transport of Rubbish

- 3.13 Any person who carries in or on any vehicle, any rubbish or other liquid or solid material that is not securely covered or otherwise prevented from falling, leaking or being shaken or blown onto any street, sidewalk, square, lane, wharf or bridge or onto any adjacent property is guilty of an offence.

Opening in Streets

- 3.14 (a) Any person or his agent who makes or causes to be made any opening in any street or sidewalk, and who allows the opening to remain at night without being safely fenced and lit is guilty of an offence.
- (b) Any person or his agent who makes or causes to be made any opening in any street or sidewalk and who does not have the opening properly guarded, to prevent nuisance or danger to vehicular or pedestrian traffic, is guilty of an offence.
- (c) Any person who maintains or permits to be maintained a defective or unsafe hatchway onto any street or sidewalk leading from his premises is guilty of an offence.

- 3.15 (a) Unless accompanied by a person over the age of 18 years, no person under the age of sixteen (16) years shall be in a public place within the City of Charlottetown between 8:00 p.m. October 31st and 7:00 a.m. November 1st.

- (b) In a year that October 31st falls on a Sunday, the restrictions provided in paragraph (a) shall also apply from 8:00 p.m. October 30th to 7:00 a.m. October 31st.

Injuring Trees

- 3.16 Unless otherwise authorized, any person who cuts down, de-barks, lops or otherwise injures any tree, boxes, supports or other appendages to or around any such tree of the City is guilty of an offence.

General

- 3.17 Any person who commits a nuisance or permits or causes any nuisance to be committed is guilty of an offence.

Solicitation

- 3.18 (a) A person shall not solicit in an aggressive manner in any public place.
- (b) For the purpose of this section, and without limiting the generality of the phrase, a person shall be considered to be soliciting in an “aggressive manner” if they:
- (i) obstruct or impede the passage of another person;
 - (ii) make continued requests or solicitations after receiving a negative response from another person
 - (iii) insult, threaten, coerce or intimidate another person;
 - (iii) make physical contact with another person; or
 - (iv) are intoxicated by alcohol or under the influence of illegal drugs; while soliciting.
- 3.19 Notwithstanding Section 3.18 (a) and (b), no person shall solicit on a street, sidewalk or other public place within 5 meters of what is considered a captive audience, which includes:
- (i) a person who is using, waiting to use, or departing from an automated teller machine;
 - (ii) a person who is using or waiting to use a pay telephone or a public toilet facility;
 - (iii) a person who is waiting at a taxi stand or a public transit stop;
 - (iv) a person who is in or on a public transit vehicle;

NUISANCE BYLAW

- (v) a person who is in the process of getting in, out of, on or off a vehicle or who is in a parking lot; or
- (vi) while on a roadway, a person who is in or on a stopped, standing or parked vehicle.

PART IV: PENALTIES

- 4. 4.1 Every person who commits an offence under this Bylaw is guilty of an offence, punishable on summary conviction and liable to:
 - (a) a minimum fine of not less than $200 and not more than $500 for a first offence and a minimum fine of not less than $400 and not more than $1,000 for any subsequent offence;
 - (b) imprisonment for a term not exceeding ninety (90) days; or
 - (c) to both;and in default of payment of any fine imposed, to a further term of imprisonment not exceeding ninety (90) days.
- 4.2 (a) A copy of any writing, paper or document filed in the Court or any statement containing any information from the records of the Department of the Minister appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Real Property Assessment Act, R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. R-4 shall be received in evidence in Court without proof of signature and is prima facie evidence of the facts contained therein as to the name of the Owner of the real property and the corresponding civic address.
- (b) An engraved, lithographed, printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced facsimile signature of the Minister or his representative is sufficient authentication of any such copy or statement.
- 4.3 The City, its employees or its duly authorized agents are exempt from prosecution for any act done or performed in good faith while engaged in their course of duties as authorized by this Bylaw.

PART V – REPEAT NUISANCE SERVICE CALLS

- 5. 5.1 Where police or planning officials have been required to respond to three (3) or more nuisance service calls for a Residential Property within a twelve (12) month period in response to or for the abatement of nuisance conduct, activity or condition, the City may impose upon the Owner of that Residential Property an excessive nuisance abatement fee in accordance with the amounts prescribed in Schedule “A” of this bylaw for each additional nuisance service call responded to at that Residential Property within the twenty-four (24) month period following the Inspector’s notice referred to in Section 5.2.

- 5.2 Notwithstanding Section 5.1, where legal title to a Residential Property is transferred, nuisance service calls made before the date that the new Owner obtains legal title to the Residential Property shall not apply to a determination under 5.1 of whether excessive nuisance abatement fees are payable. The new Owner shall, in any event, be liable for all unpaid excessive nuisance fees imposed against the Residential Property in respect of past nuisance service calls. Prior to imposing an excessive nuisance abatement fee, the Inspector shall first provide written notice to the Owner of the residential property describing in reasonable detail the nature of the nuisance conduct, activity or condition that has occurred, been maintained or permitted in, on or near the residential property and:
- (a) informing the Owner that the nuisance conduct, activity or condition must be abated within 60 days, or such other period of time as the Inspector considers reasonable in the circumstances, and steps taken to ensure that the nuisance conduct, activity or condition does not reoccur; and
 - (b) advising the Owner that they may be subject to the imposition of excessive nuisance abatement fees for each additional nuisance service call responded to at the same residential property within the twenty-four (24) month period following service of the Inspector’s notice; and that the imposition of such fees is in addition to the City’s right to seek other legal remedies or actions for abatement of the nuisance.
 - (c) Service of the notice referred to in Section 5.2 will be sufficient if the notice:
 - (i) in the case of service on an individual, is served personally or mailed by prepaid registered mail to the address of the Owner shown on the then current year’s real property assessment roll for the Residential Property for which the notice is issued;
 - (ii) in the case of service on a corporation, is served personally on a director, officer or manager of the corporation or by leaving it at or mailing it by registered mail to the registered office of the corporation.
 - (d) Excessive nuisance abatement fees shall be paid by the Owner, as defined in Section 5.2(c)(i) and (ii) upon receipt of invoice from the City. If the amount of each such invoice is not paid in full before the 31st day of December in the year received, upon written notice to the Owner, the amount shall be added to and form part of the taxes on the Residential Property, as taxes in arrears.
 - (e) Nothing in this Part V shall be construed to limit the City’s other available remedies for violation of this or any other City bylaw.
